Please answer the following questions regarding your child. As the application is reviewed during the admissions process, the information given will be used to better understand the applicant's past performance. This information is considered confidential and, if the applicant is accepted, will become part of his/her guidance/counseling file. Additional sheets may be attached.

1. What does he/she need from a school in order to be successful? Please be as specific as possible.

2a. It is imperative that all medical conditions or special circumstances be reported to the school upon admission. (For example: illness, learning differences, ADD, ADHD, frequent relocations, physical handicaps, etc.) If the applicant has documented learning differences, we MUST receive a copy of the evaluation documenting the learning difference.

2b. Does he/she take medication during the school day for an existing condition? If yes, list medication and condition for which it is prescribed.

3a. Is your child receiving any special accommodations in his/her current academic environment? (Ex. content mastery classes, un-timed or extended time testing, oral testing, etc.) If yes, please list the accommodations

3b. Please list any accommodations you feel are necessary if he/she is to be successful in high school?

4a. What do you perceive to be his/her strengths?

4b. What do you perceive to be his/her weaknesses?

5. Please review his/her record of attendance including tardiness. If he/she has more than 4 absences or tardies in any nine week period, please explain the reason.

6. Has he/she been requested to withdraw; has he/she been suspended/expelled from any academic environment; or has he/she been assigned to alternative education classes? If yes, please explain the reason.

PARENT/GUARDIAN STATEMENT

All information, including social security number, must be included and the application must be signed and dated by a parent or guardian for the applicant to be considered for admission.

I have reviewed the information submitted in this application and understand my child may be removed from the admissions process or denied admission for any misstatement or omission of information.
